

How will the Plan be prepared?

Even though the Plan is being prepared locally, there are still some formal steps that we have to take. The plan will need to fit with the Swale Borough Core Strategy (which sets the broad approach to regeneration of the Creek area) and the Government's new national planning framework. The Town Council is also keen to hear your views and has built in steps where you can influence the Plan. The main steps are set out below:

