

The question is how can the Parishes get their views and concerns across to members of the Rural Forum in a constructive and progressive fashion? Are there training courses that are available to Borough Councillors that could also be made available to Parish Councillors on various matters? How can Parish representatives ensure that their concerns regarding planning and highways issues are listened to better, and given proper responses from Officers in their reports? Are there other forums that might benefit from a Parish input?