The Licensing Officer explained that a driver could have up to 11 Swale penalty points, but as soon as a driver reached 12 or more penalty points, the driver was brought to the Licensing Sub-Committee.

The Licensing Officer detailed the incidents at which the Respondent had accumulated 12 penalty points, as below:

6 points for driving the wrong way up a one-way street;
6 points for failure to notify the Licensing Section about a conviction.

The Licensing Officer added that the Respondent previously had 16 penalty points, but four penalty points were removed as they expired in August 2018.

The Chairman asked the Respondent to present their case, and was asked questions.

Members of the Sub-Committee adjourned at 4.05pm to make their decision.
