

1

Gappy northern boundary plum and hawthorn trees, to be underplanted with native hedgerow; tall free standing hawthorn (T20) to be retained

2

Seasalter Road shelterbelt to 4

Monkshill Road frontage - new native hedge and shelterbelt to be planted

5

Leylandii to be removed from Monkshill Road frontage and new native hedge and shelterbelt

The cherry and thorn boundary, planted where the sporadic hedging, which is of hawthorn, blackthorn and field maple

The current sward is species poor and the higher nutrient content is likely to

The inclusion of a water feature is important

Tree planting, in the main should be native to support many more species of invertebrates up to 423 insect species and 324 species of thorn, crab apple, hazel and field maple