LOCAL AUDIT AND ACCOUNTABILITY ACT 2014 - CHANGES TO AUDIT REQUIREMENTS FOR JOINT COMMITTEES

The Audit Commission Act 1998 (section 2 and Schedule 2) required joint committees to prepare accounts and undergo an audit separate from their constituent bodies. From 1 April 2015, implementation of the Local Audit and Accountability Act 2014 will mean that joint committees will no longer be required to have their accounts separately prepared and audited. This approach follows consultation with the local government and accounting sector and means that the final mandatory audit for such bodies will cover the period 2014/15.

The Government has made this change as the appropriate parts of the financial results of joint committees are reported in the accounts of their constituent bodies, so they will be audited by auditors appointed to audit the accounts of those bodies, and there will be no need for a separate audit appointment to them.

Constituent authorities will need to consider the effect of ending separate joint committee audits, and ensure that an effective financial and governance framework is maintained for those joint committees and the funds they control. Authorities may arrange for a continued separate audit of their joint committees if they choose. However this will not be an audit under the 2014 Act.

We will consider with the sector what guidance might be provided to authorities on the audit of joint committees, in the context of wider guidance on auditor appointment in general. We intend guidance to be published in good time to support the first auditor appointments undertaken by local authorities under the provisions of the 2014 Act.

This letter has been sent to those joint committees we understand currently to be subject to full audit and all local authority chief finance officers, and is being made available on the DCLG website. The change will also be communicated to all local authorities by DCLG newsletter. A list of all joint committees we are aware of is appended to this letter.
